MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA, DON DUNSTAN,
FOR THE 25TH CONGRESS OF THE FEDERATION OF COMMONWEALTH
CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE.

I wish all delegates to the 25th Congress of the Federation of Commonwealth Chambers of Commerce a stimulating and successful Conference.

The unique Commonwealth structure provides member nations with an interlocking network of trade and investment opportunities.

My own Government is most anxious to do all it can to foster trade with our Commonwealth partners and so contribute to our mutual prosperity.

A meeting such as this - particularly one which takes place at so challenging a time in the Commonwealth's history - can play a significant part in securing further trade expansion.

I am confident therefore that this Conference will prove of great value to all its participants and to their home countries.

PREMIER.

18th May, 1972.
